

VOLUME I

Mrs. Weston went from being “Engaged” to “Married”.
Emma Woodhouse, Miss Bates, and 6 others like this.

Emma Woodhouse has discovered her great talent at matchmaking but does not intend to marry. Ever.
Mrs. Weston, Mr. Weston, and Miss Bates like this.
Mr. Woodhouse Poor Ms. Taylor.
George Knightley You made a lucky guess!

Emma Woodhouse and Harriet Smith are now friends.
Miss Bates likes this.

Mr. Woodhouse is cold.
Miss Bates likes this.

Emma Woodhouse tagged Harriet Smith in a picture.
Mr. Elton and Miss Bates like this.
George Knightley You’ve made her too tall.
Mr. Elton I shall away to London to have it framed!

Harriet Smith received an unforeseen letter today. A little short, though.
Mr. Knightley, Robert Martin and Miss Bates like this.
Mrs. Weston So did I! Frank Churchill is coming to visit. 6 people like this.

Emma Woodhouse believes in letting others make up their own minds, even when it may place the future of my friendship with said person or persons at risk. I will keep my opinions to myself.
Miss Bates likes this.

View all 8 Comments

Harriet Smith To be sure. Thank you for your advice.
George Knightley You call that keeping your opinions to yourself?

George Knightley > Emma Woodhouse I would not be so quick to make assumptions. Everyone is self-serving. Be sure of it.

Jane Fairfax has a cold.
Miss Bates likes this.

Emma Woodhouse and Mr. Elton are attending The Weston’s Christmas Party
Miss Bates likes this.

Harriet Smith I’m so sorry I can’t come! Stupid cold.
Emma Woodhouse I’ll miss you!
Mr. Elton Yes, you will be missed. Have you seen a physician? 2 people like this.
Harriet Smith Emma, tell me EVERYTHING that happens.
Emma Woodhouse I won’t leave out a thing.
Mr. Woodhouse Is a party really advisable with this weather. A person may catch cold!

Mr. Elton I hope Emma will wait until you are restored to health before taxing you with tales of the party. Won't you, Emma?

Emma Woodhouse My night did NOT turn out the way I thought it would. A nice evening ruined at the end by unimaginable horror!

Miss Bates likes this.

Harriet Smith What happened? Do you mean the snow storm?

Emma Woodhouse Umm, yes. Oh, Mr. Weston said Frank is finally coming. 5 people like this.

George Knightley I believe that "I told you so" is in order. Ha.

VOLUME II

Miss Bates got a letter from Jane. It's not even Tuesday! Jane normally writes on Tuesdays, you see, but upon my honor, we've just had a letter from her, haven't we mother? LETTER, MOTHER. Yes! And Jane is coming to visit! For three months! ... message truncated

Mr. Elton is "engaged".

Miss Bates likes this.

Harriet Smith can't stop crying.

Miss Bates likes this.

Emma Woodhouse is sorry.

Miss Bates likes this.

George Knightley does not understand all this fuss over the new guy.

Miss Bates likes this.

Emma Woodhouse > George Knightley You judge Frank too harshly. He has fine character!

George Knightley > Emma Woodhouse He's a douche.

Frank Churchill is going to London for a "hair cut". Aren't I capricious?

Miss Bates likes this.

Jane Fairfax received a new piano. OMG.

Miss Bates likes this

View all 5 Comments

Frank Churchill Who could have sent such a gift?

Emma Woodhouse Perhaps Mrs. Dixon. Or MISTER Dixon?

Mr. Woodhouse is cold. Porridge?

Miss Bates likes this.

Mr. Elton went from being "engaged" to "married".

Mrs. Elton and Miss Bates like this.

Miss Bates What excitement, Mr. Elton, excitement indeed, the very thought of meeting your new bride filled us with such excitement. But upon my honor, not so much excitement as seeing her in person, she is indeed lovely, lovely, lovely. And so kind. Yes, so very kind indeed! As I was telling mother just the other day, Mrs. Elton is the most kind! KIND, MOTHER... message truncated.

Emma Woodhouse She is elegantly dressed.

Mr. Weston Yes, quite good humored.

Mrs. Elton I would not boast of myself, but my friends do say that I am quite elegant and have most excellent taste.

Harriet Smith was attacked by gypsies! Thank goodness for Frank. I fainted!

Miss Bates and 11 others like this.

Volume III

 Mrs. Elton, Emma Woodhouse, Jane Fairfax and nine others are attending Crown Ball
Mrs. Elton A ball in my honor. My friends would say I'm quite deserving.
Emma Woodhouse Seriously? Harriet Smith and 3 people like this
Mr. Elton is an old, married man. Else, he would dance with all the single young ladies. Except for one. Ick. Mrs. Elton likes this.

Jane Fairfax got her shoe wet and will likely catch cold. Being delicate sucks.
Miss Bates likes this.

Emma Woodhouse > George Knightley You danced! And so elegantly! I knew you could. And such a favor standing up with Harriet!

Harriet Smith may or may not have a crush on someone who may or may not be a gentleman.
Emma Woodhouse You could do so much worse! And who knows, it could happen.

 Emma Woodhouse, Jane Fairfax and nine others are attending Strawberry Picking & Box Hill
Miss Bates likes this.
Mrs. Elton I declare, I will be in charge of the guest list!
George Knightley No one but my future and imagined wife will be in charge of the guest list.

Jane Fairfax just wants to be alone.
Miss Bates likes this.

George Knightly > Emma Woodhouse You should be ashamed of yourself.
Miss Bates likes this.

Emma is ashamed of herself.
Miss Bates likes this.

Jane Fairfax has a headache. Shocker. Don't really want to be a governess. At all.
Miss Bates likes this.

 Frank Churchill is no longer listed as single.
Jane Fairfax, George Knightley and Miss Bates like this

George Knightley > Emma Woodhouse I told you he was a douche.

Harriet Smith needs new friends - friends who think better of her.
Miss Bates and Mr. Martin like this.
Emma Woodhouse I said I was sorry!

 Mrs. Weston has added the album, "Welcome, Baby Weston!"
Emma Woodhouse, Miss Bates and 11 others like this.

 Harriet Smith is no longer listed as “single.”
 Robert Martin and Miss Bates like this.
 Emma Woodhouse Um, what??
 George Knightley Butt out, Emma.

Emma Woodhouse understands nothing. NOTHING! Stupid daisies.
 Miss Bates likes this.

 Emma Woodhouse is “engaged” to George Knightley
 Miss Bates and 11 others like this.

Mr. Woodhouse is cold. But also maybe happy.
 Miss Bates likes this.

 Emma Woodhouse went from being “engaged” to “married”.
 Miss Bates likes this.

 Harriet Smith went from being “engaged” to “married”.
 Miss Bates likes this.

The End